of the Talbot Chesapeake Women's Network (CWN) is to foster personal enrichment and professional growth among women of the Mid-Shore region through an active network of collaboration, communication and support.

February CWN Event at Clay Bakers

Braving the cold and ugly weather, 24 CWN members enjoyed a wonderful evening at Clay Bakers on February 16.

As usual, Kären Baker was a fabulous host thinking of everything to make our occasion memorable. Kären's shop resonates with color and possibility in the glass and ceramic craft environment.

The February event includes not only fellowship and food, but is a fundraising opportunity. The silent auction was a fabulous success with items ranging from Gift cards for The Bagel Bakery to a weekend at the Londonderry Manor. Our local merchants were generous with their donations.

Members enjoyed trying on wraps, faux fur scarves, reviewing the books donated by the Talbot Free Library, speculating about wines, standing on the gel mat, and perusing a basket of cookbooks written by our own member, Katie Moose.

The highlight of the evening, selecting an item to paint or colored glass to shape into a beautiful display piece, created lots of discussion and fun. The next time you visit one of our donors, please thank them for their generosity. Our net proceeds for our scholarship fund are $700.

A Note from President Kari Rider

Dear CWN Members,
With spring finally approaching Talbot CWN is launching its own website. Our new website can be found at www.talbotcwn.com. On our website you will find our past newsletters, our yearly meeting schedule, scholarship applications, membership applications and a members only secure site to view our membership list and member information.

I think this will be a great way for everyone to network and keep updated on upcoming CWN events. If you've paid your dues for this year, you will need to email me at krider@eastonclub.com to receive the password to the password protected membership list. If not, it will be sent upon payment. If you notice that your information is not current or needs an update please contact me. I encourage you to send potential members to our site to find out what we are all about.

I would like to thank our website sponsors Delia Denny with Easton Bank and Trust, Mary Taylor with Venture Title, Kelly Cox with Dockside Express and Karen Ripple with Ripples-on-Water Websites. Without them the website would not be possible.

Please take a look at our new website and feel free to email me with any suggestion that you might have.

Warm regards, Kari

Scholarship News

Thank you all for your generosity for the Scholarship Program so far this year. Your efforts continue to help change the lives of women and their families.

Next, let me remind you that our scholarship funds do no good if they sit in the bank. We need scholarship applicants! The deadline for application submissions is fast approaching – March 31, 2010. If you know of a woman over 22 who is attending college and could use a little financial help, please send her to the CWN website to download and complete a copy of the 2010 Scholarship Application. Better yet – why not download it for her (talbotcwn.com) and hand it to her to complete and mail in. We can't help these women if they don't apply.
- Mary Taylor

CWN would like to thank fellow CWN member Katie Moose for her generous donation to the scholarship fund. At our September Meeting Katie told CWN that she would donate a percentage of proceeds from her cookbook sales to the scholarship fund. We applaud you Katie and your contribution to CWN.

Quote of the Month

“Any change, any loss, does not make us victims. Others can shake you, surprise you, disappoint you, but they can't prevent you from acting, from taking the situation you're presented with and moving on. No matter where you are in life, no matter what your situation, you can always do something. You always have a choice and the choice can be power.” - Blaine Lee, The Power Principle

RISING STARS

This is your time to shine!

Amy Yule -

2010 Entrepreneur of the Year!

More great news! On February 3, 2010, Amy Yule, founder of Pecan Yummies, received the prestigious honor of being named 2010 Entrepreneur of the Year by the Entrepreneurs Exchange Organization in Annapolis, MD. “Building this company from inception to where it is now, has challenged my creativity, and created so many learning opportunities. I am so happy to have another honor bestowed on me, and now have even more reasons to make Pecan Yummies successful and a household staple!” said Amy, “Of course, none of this is possible without great customers, loyal retail outlets, faithful helpers, and my tireless partner, Lawson Kratz. Abundant thank you's to all who have made my DREAM COME TRUE!”
Congratulations, Amy!

Upcoming Events

APRIL 20 8:30AM at Mason's,
Panel Discussion

MAY 18 5:30PM Environmental Concern,
Speaker Sarah Toman, Education Director

NO SHOW POLICY: If you make a reservation for a networking event and do not cancel within a 24 hour notice, you will be BILLED. CWN has to pay for the number of people that we reserve. Members are responsible for guests costs.

Staying Connected

If you know a CWN member who is not receiving a newsletter, please e-mail Kari at krider@eastonclub.com

Inn at Perry Cabin Holiday Event

For those who missed it, we had a great turn out and a lovely evening of great food, hospitality and networking at The Inn at Perry Cabin. After a great meal we learned all about the INNsiders program from Lauren Drew. The INNsiders program offers discounted dining and services to local residents.

All you have to do is email Lauren at ldrew@perrycabin.com and she will add you to their list so you can start enjoying all the benefits it has to offer. There is no cost to become a member.

As we ate a fabulous dessert, we learned all about the Linden Spa from Spa Director, Denise. The Spa opened in 2007 and is named after the Linden trees that line the front driveway of the Inn. This premier resort spa on the Eastern Shore of Maryland offers a full range of spa services that focus on pampering, rejuvenation and wellness including a number of signature treatments such as a clay and flower massage that moisturizes and balances the skin, and a botanical complex facial that draws on the healing benefits of plants and herbs. The Spa offers other services for its guests such as taking a dip in the infinity edge pool, detoxifying in a steam room, finding harmony in a yoga class, fine tuning one's fitness routine with a personal trainer, or finding something to take home at the spa's apothecary.

We ended the evening with lovely gift bags generously put together especially for CWN from the staff at The Inn at Perry Cabin.
